

Kalash Festival Chaw Moss

07-22 DECEMBER

The festival of Chawmoss or Chitramas celebration is going full speed ahead and various remote voyagers are visiting the Kalash valley to appreciate various merriment with the indigenous clan.

Chitramas otherwise called Choimus, is among the three yearly held occasions celebrated by Kalash individuals consistently. The Kalasha individuals organize various occasions including campfire rivalries, Mandahek, Sharaberayak and Savilakehari to praise the celebration with strict energy and get-up-and-go.

The KP Tourism Department has additionally orchestrated lighting, transport and different offices with the goal that the nearby network and travelers could praise the celebration in a befitting way.

The Shawmoss celebration that started on December 7 would proceed till December 22 while the period of campfire rivalries in the Shawmoss celebration has just finished.

Local people perform customs for sanitation during the celebration at the beginning of the new year.

Kalash individuals during the Christmas celebration, which denotes the finish of the hands on work and reap, make their desires for the New Year while moving in ensemble, wearing beautiful robes.
