

Indus Civilization

Pakistan has the traces of the oldest civilizations of the world and from Mehargarh to Harrapa & Moenjodaro, Gandhara & Buddhist, Islamic & Mughal Era to British Raj, all periods have imprints in this region. The Indus valley civilization has still shrouded in mystery as their language has not yet been deciphered.

Day 1: Karachi – Larkana (by air) – Moenjodaro (1.5hrs flight + 80kms/2hrs)

- We will take a flight from Karachi for Larkana to visit the world's ancient site of Moenjodaro.
- The civilization of Indus valley is older than the history of Egypt and Mesopotamia.
- From Larkana, we will drive to Moenjodaro to visit the dead city, which was once planned over a proper map and with civic nature facilities there.
- The statue of King Priest, a dancing girl, some coins, stamps and clay items are the attractions inside the museum.

Day 2: Larkana – Sukkur – Bahawalpur (470kms/10hrs)

- After an early breakfast, we will drive to Sukkur, one of the largest cities on the banks of River Indus.
- A couple of highlights of Sukkur are the Sukkur Barrage and Minar-e-Masoom Shah.
- We further drive on National Highway and reach Bahawalpur in late evening and on arrival transfer to hotel.

Day 3: Bahawalpur – Harappa – Lahore (450kms/9-10hrs)

- After an early breakfast, we will depart for Lahore, making a stop at Harappa, the twin city of Moenjodaro and the same given its name to the Harappan civilization.
- We resume our drive to reach Lahore and transfer to hotel on arrival.

Day 4: Lahore – Full day sightseeing (60kms/5hrs) Lahore – Karachi by air (1.5hrs flight)

- After breakfast, the city sightseeing tour would start, which includes, a visit to Lahore Fort, Badshahi Masjid and Minar-e-Pakistan
- After lunch interval, we will drive to Shalimar gardens, one of the marvelous places of Mughal era. ■ Our next destination is Wagha to witness the thrilling Flag Ceremony at Indo-Pak border. In the evening, return to Lahore and drop at airport for flight to Karachi.
